Information message No. 3

We invite you to take part in the conference UTM-2019 (28–31 may 2019, St. Petersburg, Repino) and make presentations containing the results of your new research and development, as well as presenting your views on scientific and technical problems in the field of UT and their solutions.

To ensure timely provision of you with new information on UTM-2019 and on accommodation of participants, please speed up the electronic registration on the Conference website. You can if necessary, correct the information provided during registration within the deadline for applications. Requirements for abstracts are available on the conference page on the website www.ndt.sp.ru.

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the UTM-2019 Conference will be held at the Repino Cronwell Park Hotel, in which the Organizing Committee booked rooms for participants to stay during the conference. Applications for booking accommodation should be sent to the Organizing Committee. The stay at the hotel will be paid for and processed by the conference participants at the hotel's front desk upon arrival.

We also inform you that the registration fee of the participant includes: participation in the conference sessions, the Program and a collection of Abstracts (for participants); a participant or accompanying badge and a souvenir set; participation in the cultural program; transfer from the center of St.Petersburg to the Conference venue and back; coffee breaks and the organization of three meals a day.
